From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Tue, 1/7/2014 9:29:40 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Protests show criminal barristersâ€™ plight, Senate ap...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Tuesday January 07 2014

UK HOMEPAGE

Protests show criminal barristers' plight

Counterparts called to commercial bar have far greater earnings power and the gulf between the sectors is said to have widened even before proposed legal aid cuts

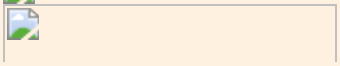
Senate approves Yellen as Fed chair

UK car sales top pre-recession levels

VIDEO

Teva without a tether

Teva was in need of direction even before its chief executive resigned in October, as the company has struggled for years with operational problems. Lex's Oliver Ralph and Vincent Boland consider the issues that Teva's new chief will need to address.



US HOMEPAGE

Freeze fires up US gas and power prices

Spot US energy markets witnessed explosive price rises as power companies scrambled ahead of what is forecast to be the coldest day since the 1990s

Samsung launches ‘smart home’ initiative

Fall in capital flows poses growth risk

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Deutsche Bank pressed over Libor

Report by the German watchdog calls on the country’s biggest lender to address disciplinary consequences for senior staff over the Libor scandal

‘Boss-napping’ returns at Goodyear plant

Pensions limit Osborne’s cuts options

ASIA HOMEPAGE

Samsung undershoots profit expectations

South Korean company estimates fourth-quarter operating profit fell 18% amid slowing demand for higher-end smartphones

Filmmaker Run Run Shaw dies aged 107

Recreational pot prices soar in Colorado

WORLD NEWS

Libyan navy blocks tanker at eastern port

Oil tanker barred by the navy from loading crude at Es Sider, as the fragile government attempts to gain control over its most lucrative resource

Crime grips Trinidad despite gas riches

French government challenges racist comic

Romania’s ex-PM jailed for taking bribes

Spanish companies upbeat on recovery

COMPANIES NEWS

Sony eyes ‘modular’ wearable gadgets

Group pitches its wearable technology – a thumb-sized sensor and a ‘Life Logging’ service – and aims to introduce an ‘iPhone killer’ smartphone

Lawmaker targets Tribune paper shake-up

GE boosts life sciences with $1.06bn deal

Murthy to unveil shake-up at Infosys

MARKETS

Caution reigns in Asian stock markets

Bourses mixed after US stocks fell for a third session and as investors look ahead to European central bank meetings and key US data

Bitcoin rebounds in China to top $1,000

Surging Dr Copper leaves traders confused

Concerns grow for Tel Aviv exchange future

Turks buy over $20bn in foreign currency

COMMENT

Take inspiration from Sarajevo, not Munich

The popular use of 1938 as an analogy has not been diminished by the fact that it has led western leaders astray on numerous occasions

Young should blame bad luck not policy

Turkey must prioritise political reform

Markets can shore up the global economy

An ever closer call for Britain’s union

MANAGEMENT

Harnessing the power of extreme consumers

Product designers are using extreme consumers, from obsessive cleaners to dominatrices in tight shoes, to glean ideas for innovation

The collapse of corporate hierarchies

The gainful way to give ground

Octavio Café, São Paulo

Manage email | Forward this email

Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2014

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.